Semestre 2

UE3 SPÉCIALISATION PROGRESSIVE

English-speaking cultures 2

Présentation

Based on the weekly reading of a chapter of Howard Zinn's A People's History of the US, the course will introduce the students to US history and culture from the Civil War to the present with references to institutions, social movements, economic history, and social/cultural issues. The class is mostly based on student research projects.

Objectives:

Connect the history and culture of the studied periods to the general course of the country's history through the study of textual, oral and visual documents

Learn how to read, take notes about, and report on the chapters of the book

Improve your research skills

Improve your ability to work with other students
